

librarian-app-application

The diagram shows a light pink rectangular container with a dashed border. Inside the container, at the top, is the text "librarian-app-application". Below this text is a solid black rectangular frame. Inside this frame, there are two dark red rectangular boxes. The left box contains the word "Release" and the right box contains the word "Debug". To the right of these two boxes, still within the solid black frame, is the text "obj".
